This unique nautical-styled, cylindrical wall sconce features a geometric tiered frame that reveals an exposed Edison-styled LED lamp displayed from within. Ketchikan integrates an industrial lighting design with hardware and decorative accents, which are featured in Old Wrought Iron. The wall fixture is ideal for installation in hallways and entryways in homes, hospitality, and commercial locations. The Ketchikan Wall Sconce is included in our American-made, American-designed, handcrafted Industrial Lighting Collection. It was manufactured in Yorkville, New York, and is UL and cUL listed for dry and damp locations.
