A spectacular masterpiece of Brass, Crystal, Glass, and Idalight that speaks to drama, excitement, and celebration of beautiful lighting and design. This innovative geometric-styled chandelier features thirteen cube-like elements hand-finished in stunning Brushed Brass and accented with delicate Crystal beads. Each metal frame features a Granite Glass Lens that reveals a Clear Acrylic globe. This massive chandelier is ideal for illuminating entryways, lobbies, and ballrooms in hotels and other commercial lighting installations. The Blackburn Chandelier is included in our American-made, American-designed Modern Chandelier Collection, manufactured in Yorkville, New York. UL and cUL listed for dry and damp locations. The fixture was designed by The Memorymakers at Landmark Hospitality for the ballroom of The Grand Summit Hotel in Summit, New Jersey. The Blackburn Chandelier is named as a homage to the original building on the site.
