Bold, eye-catching appeal integrates a modern aesthetic with functionality. This unique lamp hardwires directly to the surfaces of bar tops, desktops, and library tabletops. This innovative luminaire features a Solar Black finished, mailbox-shaped frame perched on two Vintage Brass arms. Twin traditional pull chains operate the on/off lighting switches for convenience. The fixture can be installed in bars and libraries throughout Queens, New York, Washington, DC, and Austin, Texas. The Nomad Bar Top Lamp is included in our American-made, American-designed, handcrafted Modern Lighting Collection and manufactured in Yorkville, New York. UL and cUL listed for dry and damp locations.
