Milky orbs glint with glow among a labyrinth of downlight functionality as this ebulliently bespoke 34' chandelier emerges from a creative canvas articulating drama & youthful urban sensibility. Rendering a refined organic abstract for a highly polished look & signature eclectic aesthetic, Grand Illumina yields a convergence of art & ingenuity for artists & aesthetes. This clear distillation of a thoughtful sculptural continuum reflects edginess, exuding layered elegance imbued by ethereal funky couture. An arresting modern mix of glass & steel conveys a cross-disciplinary culture of mid-century modern design, employing quintessential panache & pattern-centric punch, capturing architectural spirit with idiosyncratic splendor & grandeur. Featured in the William Vale Hotel in Brooklyn, NY.
