A dramatic and decorative illuminating accent for homes, restaurants, retail spaces, and other commercial environments. The Sanderson wall sconce features a minimalist design, with four White Opal Glass diffusers set on a stunning Antique Copper-finished, louver-textured frame. This contemporary piece combines form and function, featuring a handsome approach with restoration-style form. This wall fixture can be flanked on both sides of a mirror as a vanity light, placed in a hallway or entryway as a wall sconce, or to provide cove lighting in a soffit. The Sanderson Wall Sconce is included in our American-made, American-designed, handcrafted Industrial Lighting Collection, manufactured in Yorkville, New York. It is UL and cUL listed for dry and damp locations.
