A shimmering elegance and stunning textural design define this cascading chandelier. Dozens of Amber and Clear Seeded Ribbon Elements, handcrafted from Hot-Drawn Glass, drape in a mesmerizing shower of light at varying heights. These organic, leaf-shaped accents dazzle while delivering eight points of light from the canopy above. The hardware contrasts strikingly with a Nickel finish, making it ideal for entryways and foyers in fine homes, restaurants, and hotels from Manhattan to Las Vegas. The Schole Cascading Pendant, featured in our American-made Contemporary Lighting Collection, is manufactured in Yorkville, NY. UL and cUL listed for dry and damp locations. Custom made.
