proudly announces the Anahata Chandelier for Nashville's Cumberland on Church as the ""Best Project of the Season Award, Spring 2023."" Like a 12-petal flower, this massive lighting design is inspired by a concept related to balance, compassion, empathy, and serenity. Petal-shaped arms with an Ebony stained wood and Gold Metallic finishes adorn this chandelier. The interior hub embraces six large LED globes while 72 round Edison-styled lamps attached to the wood with Statuario Idalight arms deliver beautiful ambient illumination. Ideal for placement in the entryway of the lobby of a multifamily building or the ballroom of a fine hotel. The Anahata 78 Light Chandelier is featured in our American-made, American-designed, handmade Art Deco Lighting Collection and manufactured in Yorkville, NY. UL and cUL listed for dry and damp locations. The Anahata Chandelier is featured in Cumberland on Church, which used to be the Tennessee Theatre and is one of the oldest apartment complexes in downtown Nashville. Project by the Anderson Design Studio in Nashville.
